The American holiday is very important, for they all have meaning that runs deep. Each holiday has different meanings to each of us. Inside of this book, you will find the way I see each holiday.

New Year's

Happy new year's,
We will scream to all,
When the clock strikes zero,
And we see the drop of the ball.

Happy new year's,
We've made it to see another year,
Through everything we faced,
God has allowed us to be here.

For all of us that made it,
And for the one's that are not,
God may have called you home,
But none of you are forgot.

Happy new year's,
For each of you here,
I hope you are blessed,
So you can see many more year's.

For all of you that won't,
We all stand in your place here,
And we scream in your voice,
Happy New Year's.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day

It's Martin Luther King Jr. Day,

So let's all stand and sing,

For he was a great man,

That said he had a dream,

A dream that called for a change in America,

So it wasn't segregated,

So the color of a man's skin,

Will not cause him to be hated.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.,

Had the strength to speak his mind,

Cause his dream called for a change,

He believed it was time.

Where the color of a man's skin,

Doesn't mean anything,

And each man was equal,

For this we must thank Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Valentine's Day

It's Valentine's Day,
So show your love and you care.
Let them know, you love them,
And you'll always be there.

Tell them that they are special,
And explain why they are a Godsend.
Tell them they are more than your lover,
They are also your friend.

With that being said,
You should cherish them all day.
Plus don't forget to tell them,
Happy Valentine's Day!

By Anthony Leslie
President's Day

America has been blessed through the years,
This I know is true.
That is why everyone across the world,
Respects the red, white, and blue.

The president's we've had through out the years,
Has helped us get to where we are,
Yet we still continue to grow,
And aim for the star's.

President's Day,
To respect those president's that are never forgot,
For we are thankful,
Cause it was you that got us to this spot.

We should all be proud,
Of the president's of the U.S.A.
For it was through them,
That has paved the way for us today.

Easter Sunday

It's Easter Sunday,
It's time to look our best,
Every young man wear a suit,
Every lady wear a dress.

First we all will go to church,
To hear the preacher preach,
We will all sit and listen,
As God's follower's teach.

After the service is over,
We will join hands on prayer,
And thank God for allowing us,
To be here on this beautiful day.

Then all of the little one's,
Are held in the church's Keep.
When they are released,
It is a Easter egg hide an seek.

Other than that it is a day of relaxation,
Would it be any other way,
I mean after all,
It's Easter Sunday!

National Day Of Prayer

Everyone come together on Joan hand's,
Close your eye's an say prayer with me,
For God sent his only begotten Son,
To die on the cross for you an me.

Jesus was hung on the cross,
So our sins could be washed away.
Then after three day's,
Jesus arose up out of the grave.

If God could do that,
Praising Jesus up from the grave.
What can stop him,
From allowing each of us to be saved.

Confess your sins,
An always keep the faith.
Through God an Jesus,
Know that you will be kept safe.

God will never allow,
You to be by yourself.
Cause if you any call on him,
He is more than willing to help. Continued

By: Anthony Leslie
National Day Of Prayer

With that in mind,

know that God really does care.

So join hands my brother's and sister's,

On this National Day Of Prayer.

By: Anthony Leslie
Mother's Day

This I send out,
To someone I love,
You are someone special,
A angel sent from above.

If anyone don't agree,
I can care less.
Having you in my life,
Has allowed me to be blessed.

God knew what he was doing,
The day that he created you.
Cause there is no one else,
That can love me as you do.

No matter what I face,
I can count on you to be there.
And no matter the weight,
You are alway's willing to bear.

It right along with me,
Cause that is what you do.
You are so very special,
Know that it is true.

By: Anthony Leslie
Mother's Day

You are the very best,
That is all I can say,
So know that I love you,
And Happy Mother's Day.

By: Anthony Leslie
Memorial Day

It's Memorial Day,
So let's stop and think of those we lost.
It was their bravery that gave us freedom,
It was their life that was the cost.

They gave up their all,
For you and me,
So we could live in the home of the brave,
And the land of the free.

The brave souls are the reason,
That we live on this beautiful land,
That is why I send a salute,
To every fallen woman and man.

I respect and love you all,
Know you are on my mind everyday,
For you are American heroes,
That's why we celebrate Memorial Day!

By: Anthony Leslie
Flag Day

The red, white, and blue,
Let it fly high.

Let all other countries,
Hear our patriotic cry.

We are the home of the brave,
The land of the free.

Look up in the sky,
Our beautiful flag you will see.

Sometimes have been good,
Some of them have been bad.

But through it all still flying high,
You'll see the American flag.

It represents America,
An everything united.

When someone crosses us,
We're always chained together or fought.

Sometimes have been good,
Some of them have been bad,

But through it all still flying high,
You'll see the American flag!

Father's Day

You are the one,
That I always look up to,
I always watch everything,
So I can do everything you do,

When I grow up,
I want to be just like you dad,
If I can be half the man,
You are then I'll be good,

When I'm down an out
An I'm too weak to stand
It is you,
That lend's a helping hand,

I love you so much pop's,
That is the least I could say,
But I had to say it an let you know,
Happy Father's Day!

By J. Anthony Leslie
Independence Day
This beloved day,
Is one of great remembrance,
For on this day,
We declared our independence.

We wanted to be free,
To stand on our own.
So we stood together,
And declared this land our home.

We stand together as watch
As fireworks light up the sky,
And once again declare our independence,
On every 4th of July!

By: Anthony Leslie
September 11th,
Will never leave our minds,
For when the plane's hit those tower's,
It left us in our darkest of time's.

After both of the plane's crashed,
And brought down the tower's,
It's the heart of America,
That allows us not to cower.

Together we will stand on fight,
For the red, white, and blue,
For we are american's,
And we're tried on true.

We stand together,
All of us united,
We rose up out the ashes,
And we stood on fighted.

For the people that we lost,
An for those at ground zero,
That is what make's,
American hero's.

By: Anthony Leslie
9-11

On this day together we stand,

In remembrance of 9-11.

We pray for all of our lost,

And wish you safe passage to heaven.

Halloween

It's time to dress up,
Just to have a little fun.
I might dress up as a indian,
Or a cowboy carrying a six gun.

I might be super man,
Or maybe even a goblin.
But then to think about it,
I might dress up as Robin.

Who knows what I might be,
I maybe apart of a famous band,
Or I can be a vampire,
I might even be batman.

All I really can do,
Is think of all the candy I'm eat,
That's why I knock on door's,
An smile on say trick or treat!

By: Anthony Leslie
Veteran's Day

Everyone take a moment of silence,
And give our soldier's their due.
For it was them alone,
That represented the red, white, an blue.

The home of the brave,
The land of the free.
It is because of the veteran's,
That allows us to be free.

I salute all of the man an women,
For everything that you do.
Each of you are special,
That I want y'all to know is true.

Trying to write this has me struck,
Thinking of what word's will say it best.
Yet I can't grasp the word's,
So the only way I can express...

What we think is to send a salute,
To everyone or you that is home or over seas.
I want to say may God bless you,
And thank you for fighting for our country.

By o Anthony Leslie
Veteran's Day (2)

For all soldier's over seas I hope you come home,
This I honestly pray.
For every last one of you,
And send you a salute this veteran's day.

By: Anthony Leslie
Thanksgiving

Come together everyone,
Let's join hands.
We may have been enemies before,
But on this day we are friends.

As the pilgrim's on indian's,
Died before us.
Let's put away our hate,
And begin to trust.

Let's all come together,
And each of us take a seat.
Then say a prayer,
And thank god for this feast.

Then after we eat,
Let's explain what it means to be living.
This is what we should be thinking,
This Thanksgiving!

Christmas Eve

It's the day before Christmas,
I hope Santa likes his milk and cookies.
I also hope
I get a lot of cool toys.

I'm in bed and I can't sleep,
I swear I'm wide awake.

But I can't get up,
For my own sake.

Cause if I do Santa will know,
And he may take some toys back,
God forbid that to happen,
Cause I can't handle it.

As time creep's past,
It's going by too slow,
Then out of no where,
I hear someone say HoHoHo.

I can't believe it,
Until I hear the scrape of a hook,
It is then I know,
Santa is on the roof.

By Anthony Leslie
Christmas Eve

I'm so happy I'm a good boy.
And I did some good deeds.
Cause Santa stopped at my house,
On Christmas Eve!

By: Anthony Leslie
Christmas

I open my eyes,
And then it hits me.
That it's Christmas,
So I jump out of bed with joy.

I run to wake up my sister,
So we can go look under the tree,
And see how many presents Santa brought.
Then it's time to wake up the family.

We race to mom and dad's room,
We're yelling and screaming which makes mom hat
What in the world are you doing?
It is only 5 a clock.

But mom it's Christmas,
Come here and look under the tree.
Santa brought all our gifts,
For sis on me.

That makes our parent's smile,
Cause it's moment's like this,
That makes today special.
With that I wish you all a Merry Christmas!

New Year's Eve

New year's eve,
Everyone gets together to watch the clock.
When it reaches zero the bell will drop.

Yelling is all you will hear.
Everyone is tuned into the coming year.
As the new year approaches,
Resolutions are thought out,
Solutions are thought about.

Everyone will celebrate this night on,
Verbalize their excitement as the bell drops,
Everyone will scream Happy new year's!
