Acknowledgment

I have been fortunate indeed to have had the support of many individuals and my big brother/mentor, Dominique, who helped with feedback and editing this book. To all loved ones and friends who supported me while being incarcerated, especially my lovely mother and stepdad, Net and Will, Jerret, Jerri, Black, Davita Taylor, R.I.P., Domin “Laylow” Taylor, La Kerduich, Lash, Emah K., Ronnie, Dutchman, Baby James, and J. Young, Swoop, for showing me how to have this book published. Thank you, I’m very grateful to have caring people in my life…
... always in my prayers keeping me focused and strong.

I love you with all my heart and can't wait to come home.

If I could purchase the world it still wouldn't be enough for a mother's sighs. There will never be enough words to express my gratitude.

Your presence once again is the only sweet escape. Sweet memories always keep a smile on my face.

It's time to heal your heart and ease the strain.

You've done more than enough,

Knowing I caused your heartache and pain.

I'm sorry for being a burden,

Helping me overcome obstacles that instigate envy.

So supportive in the time of need,

A noble woman that nourished and provided all,

The joy of seeing my mother is like watching the sun rise.

When you read this letter, be striving to provide and do our part.

We were a team and still are till this day

even though you're nestled in my life and heart,

I shed tears cause you left me to travel alone.

I figured it was time to start your mission,

We all needed you near,

Why did you take a different journey?

I wanted nothing but success to transcend whatever.

Being another brother in my life

just knowing we would return together,

These are words I never had the chance to express sitting here waiting to see your face.

I love you beyond words when you never left in the first place,

People stress life after death.

There never was a, it was always "us"pring you are able to receive this,

I'm writing you this letter

Feeling the wicked is one game.

From becoming the prey to conflicting consciousness.

Crossing to walk away to save you

A risk of unmerited oppression

Playing with fire is equal to Russian Roulette

If I consent to challenge all of your propositions.

Consumed by feelings, burn internally.

Rhetoric the self-restraint and control that I summon,

Independent through the day and haunted mentally at night

Being haunted through the day and haunted mentally at night.

Instead of ignoring the signs and voices.

Take heed to the warnings given.

Generally being the dictator to my choices,

I will never be normal, being a sole rebel to life.

Causes to question which path to take, fighting many assumptions.

A lesson and rule to never become a slave to emotions.

When distracted by lustful desire of rage affection,

This is a game I no longer find fun.

Avoiding the curse of unexpressed desire of the conscience.

Leaving your spell amongst the masses

By many who are blind behind the appearance you possess,

You are too beautiful in ways that are unknown.

"The wicked games"
...to participate or fall victim to wicked games...

Never letting stimulation become the reason that alone should never be entertained,

Regardless of the interest and attraction.

Expect to be hunted, finding no escape from his path.

If you inherently provoke the lion, there would be concerns for the extent of this aftermath.

If I didn’t have empathy or care.

Give up destiny to its end.

There are no boundaries.

You are not defined to win.

we are constantly searching for peace,

So many innocent ones subjected to the cruelty of victimizers, only to face another day of unwanted grief.

Everyone is looking for someone to blame,

why my story is linked to the person in the mirror.

We made this world what it is today.

Now we are wondering how could anyone pull the trigger.

Many nights we complain how life is unfair.

What about the ones in other countries that are hungry and face despair?

Knowing the struggles they face will never lead to happiness.

Everyday is "Mother's Day," my heart goes out to you.
So everyday should bring a multitude of cheers..."
Greetings, with good spirits in the soul

Lord knows of the many burdens we hold,
Wisdom is the beginning of understanding,
we face many obstacles that threaten to oppose.

Don't look at these things in pessimistic ways, every situation is an omen to bring forth good will,
our minds wander uncontrollably.

Everyday we take life fix granted, complaining about the smallest things that are so lucidious,
Take time to realize others are in worse states.

It's not hard to succeed amongst the flock as long as it's your desire to follow the most graceful shepherd, we've been lead astray and on the road to destruction with prayer and stability we can all grow together.

At the end of the tunnel there is guiding light
the road to sweet and heavenly paradise, never be discouraged when you have help,
in this world we must strive to reach new heights.

Stay focused on truth, morals, goals, and values evil lurks and surround you daily.
...blessed are you, just remember to pray...

Always remember you have someone who loves you

we'll all have bad days,

internalize these words to lift you up in order to be able to appreciate his loving side.

We are destined to stumble

Think of the one who was crucified,

When you feel like the world is on your shoulders

you must be diligent in your part and not be lazy.

Fill and digest the food of faith and trust.
Is it destiny that we embrace...

Understanding deals with contemplation.

Giving up hope for a little stack of paper.

Knowledge is the key.

Education falls in the same line as us.

If you crack a look, the stress over rights, we are the same individuals.

Taking each other's lives at night.

More than the human mind.

What lies beneath is exposed.

Step through the door, your way through the open space.

Real struggles lie deeper than what we believe.

Climb these mountains, leaving all your worries behind.

Dwelling on the past, feeling dominated by illusions, never brings any joy or sunshine.

Incarceration brings out the best to help deep within,

Looking from the outside probably would be hard to comprehend

I rather be accepted for the responsible person than the crooked snake that could harm or affect another human-being.

We will never stop being attracted to you precious beautiful love don't treat us as aliens that are not wanted in your eyes or planet,

Just because we made mistakes, why do you persecute?

It's not because we are in chains temporarily or permanent.

How can you not feel our pain when you're in our presence?

All we have is our words and sweet memory of your face, body and fragrance all that smells as heaven.

The passing of us daily wanting to be home with freedom

Time passes us daily wanting to be home with freedom.

Reality we have to face knowing this is not our kingdom.

True, we consider even instead of being harsh and unfair

Only a man can take responsibility for being in here

Respect goes a long way as well as our emotions

don't despise or stereotype until you take time to know us boldly

Merry Christmas with the best gift that speaks...

A friend: Someone who cares beyond any other man

Always remember what you have in me,

When you open my present of love

Even though we're distance apart, we are never out of reach.

All my love touches your heart as well as brings peace;

If warm your insides and comfort your bones.

Christmas love is sweet like hot cocoa.

Having you in my life is more needed than 80 West Blend's little helpers.

But one kiss eternizes two souls together.

Standing under the mistletoe with you

There's no coincidence we are destined to be one of a kind.

Once I came in to your world,

You will discover the element of surprise.

Under the Christmas tree are many gifts.

Spread your wings and soar high with the doves.

Your eyes sparkle with so much radiance.

Step in the name of love

The heavenly angels sing much praise, following exact harmony of salvation.

When the heart beats with glory,
just to know the children of God rejoice.

Walking everyday with a purpose in life, temptation is at every door step to interfere with our choice.

What are we fighting for?

So many people are confused by deception,
maybe the humble can be examples for the ground.

If you are one with the answer,
make it your duty to guide brothers and sisters through your own passion.

If we are afraid and embarrassed to seek charity, only the doubters will be left behind.

Recognize when the Lord is speaking, situations are manifested to understand thy heart.

Take comfort in prayer and faith,
be uplifted by compassion and follow their voice...
That giving up and surrendering is not a virtue.

Living is a full-time occupation surrounded by hatred.
Imagine a world free of discrimination that enable us to reach greater heights.

Can you picture yourself sitting on the edge of the earth, watching over the masses.
How would you categorize this world?
When the multitude is creating perdition and disaster.

Everything happens for a reason this is the land of tests.
Learning that so much can be inflicted in the time experienced, we realize that we can overcome this stress.

Being successful has its own price everyone has fallen from glory.
We must take advantage of the blessings received to live a fabulous life wholly.

Time waits for none as understanding is hard to conceive.
Why must we face trials and tribulations?
Unity encourages us to help one another and intercede.

Two wrongs never equal right.
in wars we are hungry for anything that brings peace,
Keep your head held high in order to find the glory of sunshine...

Open your eyes because this is our time that will elevate and enhance our mind.

We are traveling on a road pushing for wisdom to ease all of the negative pollution.

Be one who defeats discrimination am I part of the problem or one with the solution?

Examine yourself and all of the struggle for freedom is what we seek. Vengeance is very demanding.

I'll walk a thousand miles for your kiss

Every man needs love

sincerely you're my special wish that I will ever let you slip.

Before you walk away

my heart is in the palm of your hands.

just give me one chance

When I get around you

I don't know how to act

that will change you starting from the back.

Never want these memories to fade

I'm backed on you like a needle in my skin trying to find the words to repeat.

Money can't provide love

only you can fill that emptiness, Feeling like I can’t go on you are that important instrument.

I’ll play you like a violin
so many emotions flow through my brain.
Heavy sedated with you
I can feel you running through my veins.

I can’t sleep at night
being taunted by your presence,
It’s not the same.

I’m willing to give the past my confessions.

Money couldn’t buy important things
I know I’m someone different.
Give us time to officiate this trust you come first before many.

You’re so beautiful and sophisticated your style has me mesmerized,
I daydream about holding your heart
while making your pressure rise.

I have been interested in you like a pastor eager to preach,
We can communicate forever
as long as our heart’s beat.
That Special Woman

For "An"...

the truth shall open many gates...

My love for you is guaranteed

I can't help but wait,

I'm not ashamed with how [Fel]

to prove my love will never die.

I've got to fill your soul internally

as though it has nine lives,

I need to shake your kitty hard

I'm only a human-being.

I'm not perfect I make mistakes intellectual actions and words that are being disproved and what I'm saying

Now take this to heart is strive for better days.

All we can do now

we can never change,

What's done in our past

Title: "The Truth"

2014

LaMarcus O. Haden 1359860
This book is based on true thoughts, emotions, situations we are faced with; as well as experience. This leads to knowing and feeling, remorse, love, and understanding while living our lives whether in prison or not, and look at life through the eye’s of other and world events. Incarcerated Vision is a book of poetry that expresses, displays, and presents this world with a deeper comprehension from an incarcerated perspective...
