But the vast majority are in fear of letting them here
Blue-eyed Anglo-Saxon child sized
Elderly mothers so freaken tired
Televisions like visual stimuli hook to Satellites that incorporate mental euphoria
Through the chemical wire
Political bandits say their all lies
White-collar criminals walk away while
It's the blue-collar submerge that's handed
The legal lifetime flyer
And for the right price, all fed all allies
For the widowed, child, woman, believer
In escans, myers
For the sake of that humanity and a sense of decency, feed the children
The USA says no child left behind.
But it's the hope of the people that the nations will defend Perfect righteousness, some contend:
Is near! But really when?
In my mind, truth will come when
The beginning, very first lie, is revealed
Again will the terminal and suffering end

Eulogy
Man can never understand his full potential
Because only in submission does he allow himself to become this infinite vessel of knowledge.
And only then does the magnificent infinity of never
I said OK to a happy life
Yeah I went to college
And the name of the university was Pelican Bay Penitentiary.
My people said I had to go
Because I was being a menace in their society.
So 25 years of school to be exact
So yes, it was definitely a dose of reality.
I saw event after event past
The yearly annuity never failed to being a catastrophic size.
Yes, the Earth basically has two types of people
The believers and the Nay Sayers
Behaves and The Have Nots.
And in order to get in where you fit in sometimes one has to take a lot
But with experience comes wisdom
And that's one of the reasons America is considered the melting pot
That's all I learned to

As you reveal more and more

Your Power and Love

Through your beauty

You make things possible

It's your mighty power and love we live for

Martyrdom is not the concept of greatness.

Adventism is great.

Jesus, the King.

It's you we adore.

Ke: it's possible

The rise of the mighty power and love we live for

From the wilderness to the desolate

Not what you do for it's what you do to you.
The problem is that everyone wants what the rich man has. Finances it consumes the nations with its 100% gasoline. The only thing wrong with that is that the rich can buy a face mast's and history keepers record the past. Endless archives made to last.
So often we are stuck in the present system of things, but time to time we can take the elevator to the future.

Life as you get older can be sometimess like the deep complexities that can enter into the deepest recesses of the mind. The mind eye sees and records life's course, but as fate would have it the kind fate deals can be worse.

The smiles passing you buy, a kind gesture, here a caring touch. There all seemsabit perverse, unlike a mere curse that gives way to a severe tragedy. Beautiful minds caught up in these universities to leave it's cauldron of knowledge and hopes of today's success and life's grandeur earth all a travesty, a great fear connected to a great danger. Again the minds harsh.

In a world divided by companies these obsessive conglomerates together conspire, it's dual ends are to indoctrinate into the minds of the controlling consensus for the ultimate payoff to load the unfortunate.

How do I contribute something to humanity and leave behind all my vanities. What is life without fantasy?

How do I offer up my soul for inspection when my aegrotis fear is rejection but never the less I offer humanity my best only after it's all said and done.

I hope I can look myself in the face tomorrow in my life with it's much strife and sorrow and know I wasn't wrong in believing in man kind it is my aegrotis wisdom find my humanity stand me test of time.

One thing for certain is that I observed you leading by example and you are severely aware that getting God's word out is critical.
Respect for life and the continuation of the population is essential.
But ultimately peace and love is potentially in all of us and it is by this knowledge of yours that has sustained you in this time of turmoil.

WHAT'S DIGNIFIED

To me being dignified means reflecting on past and present life and that you're not horrified by it and that people are not petrified by it forever. Young is your spirit. Being able to hold up your head and miss deeds done by cowardly people. But when your actions are good, it tends to be divine. And me and we all know the results are good.
Statesmen considered you as a person so awful and then you turned around and did something wonderful.
Early in life they said you were not mindful that you were not careful.
But as the statesmen would have it your tree turned out fruitful your knowledge of one that have and me have no useful things that existed in you and in your way purposeful and beautiful ideas sound and logic.
People whispering thisenery peaceful.
Humbly restrained
In this United wasteland
Of war and severe poverty
It is what it is
And I'm a hopeful man

Because true knowledge
In its infinite abundance
Awaits patiently
Because just over
The horizon is the manifestation of
A new heartland
Mere mortal man
Seventh limit sabbatical and hospice
It's true purpose undeniable but today
I was delightfully awoken to this eventual
Aspiration by this wonderful fairest golden

And delightfully made acutely aware that she is Diligently decent
And fair
And by this day standard the recitation's rare
Amassed calamities
I thank her for her thoughtful and just consideration
This is one of the many fantastic things about this

And when you're around humble prosperity, men recognize the trend. One must be a true friend with the sense of entitlement. Also with humility and a sense of suffering, the result is betterment. Blessed by the spirit of prosperity, the world looking on while the pay for it with their popularity going through the system with its process coming out being released hoping for success in wealthy places where smiling faces, thankful and contented with impeccable taste's with feelings help in the wrong regard and contestants play hard.
