For this when you truly know love its truely something special A love that unconditional

A feeling so sensational

"my everything" Poem

Incredible, unforgettable
We seem to be inseparable Wonderfully so valuable It's truly just remarkable

My best friend, my soul mate With differences that we integrate In harmony we collaborate
The type of bond you can appreciate

You're the one that makes my heart sing
The love that of my wildest dream
For you I shall do anything For truly you're my everything "Hopeless Romantic"
the mood that of a melody your presence seems so heavenly although we haven't spoken
I can sense just what you're telling me

It's like music to my ears It's exactly what it appears your love is so sincere
It seems to wash away my fears

The piano softly plays as I gaze into your eyes It's pouring out my soul as for I'm feeling mesmerized
The saxophone it plays the theme of everything you mean to me
I feel that of a king after the joy you seem to bring to me

My heart is of the drum
The guitar seems to strum
The rhythm is in sync My mind seems to turn

The violin intensifies
The music seems to hypnotize
The mood it seems to tantalize
As I can feel my nature rise

"Hopeless Romantic" Poem

It's hard for me to stand it It's nothing like planned it I'm trying to keep my focus I'm so hopelessly romantic
"Still in love" Lyrics

Never meant to mean you know harm
I got caught up in the storm of the rain
Let us that this time to heal from the pain

Through the struggle and strife
I prayed to god to have you back in my life
So hopefully one day I could make you my wife

I brought you shelter through the storm Many nights I keep you warm Just want to protect you so I can keep you from harm

Like a necessity my destiny, my dream come true My one and only. All those lonely nights when I was missing you

I reminisced of you consoling me longing your touch Pure that of a dove. That's why I love you so much

So please believe I had to leave so I could find myself And understand. It's not a plan to be with someone else

It's just something that I was going through. Keeping me down And then I know it would effect you. If I kept you around So I left you for awhile. Took some time to get away Though as I rose. Lord knows I still love you to this day
"Definitions of love" Poem

Real the love that owns your heart
The beauty of love is a work of art

The strength of love that stood through time
The purpose of love is truly divine

Precious the love we hold so dear
The genuine love that's so sincere Courageous the love you fought to keep The depths of love that runs so deep

Worthy the love we always cherish
The honorable love that's bound by marriage

Exciting the love the wonderful thrill
The remarkable day you seem to feel

True the love that's always there
The thing you do to show you care

Noble the love that's always righteous
The value of love is truly priceless
"my love"
Poem

my beautiful delicate flower my loves within youower you hold the key to my heart to enter and never depart your warm and gentle embrace the love I cant replace the passionate kisses we share the thoughts that shows you care my gift that gets my thought for god blessed me with you how lucky a man can get of that Ill never forget my gorgeous rightful queen for every thing that love could mean is what you mean to me a feeling of ecstasy

my grateful, faithful love your heart is pure as a dove for all that I'm thinking of together forever my love Romantic evening  lyrics the candle light, the bubbly the mood is set for you and me it ain't no place I would rather be the closest thing next to ecstasy the bright stars, the moon light were dining out on a warm night our chemistry it just feels right its dynamite, its out of sight the fire works, we celebrate Heals a toast to our first date feels great its such a thrill and it I love the way that we collaborate we hit it off, the sparks fly I'm really feeling you you see its no lie we'll never know it if we don't try the night young and its a clear sky

"Silly of Me" Poem

Silly of me, to think you would be thankful
I gave you my heart and yet and still you ungrateful

Silly of me, to think that you would be devoted Misled you cheated itaint no way to sugar coated

Silly of me, to think that you would be a friend of mine When times got hard it shed seems you were hard to find

Silly of me, to think that you could be trusted Yet all the while you were foul, I'm disgusted

Silly of me, to ever put you on a pedestal
To think you were worthy to only find you wasn't credible

Silly of me, so naive you deceived me
I never would of thought that you would love and then leave me

Silly of me, to think that you would love me for life Thought you were funny you only wanted to use me right

Silly of me, I didnt see what you were really made of I wasn't looking and was taken as a sucker for love
"Broken Hearted" Poem

The heart that of a broken wing
The joy that I would seast to bring The love that I would seast to give For what reason is there left to live

The voice that broke and could not sing
Its hard to shine without the bling
How can I use this broken wing
How can I live this broken dream

Oh how it hurts to reminisce
The heart feeds of a broken dish!
The shatter love we use to share
The emptiness that in the air

The doubt seem to brake our will How could you fake what seems so real It's sad to say how bad I feel Though the say in time the heart shall heal
"Can't let nothing come between us"

Let nothing come between us, people meaning us harm through hopefully together we can weather the storm the Envy friends that pretend thought they constantlly at me if they were real they would only want to see us be happy if its a secret let us keep it till its out of the bag people talk as if we listen to the gossip and such I put this out cause I can see they run their mouth to much they make prediction we contradicted proving 'em wrong leave it to them we would have never ever lasted this long they say they wishing us the best so we would keep 'em away some people like to build you up for only bringing you down we don't fight cause wrong or right you know I love you alot from the start they tried to break apart the bond we got though we got faith to keep us safe and still our trust is intact its really something cause can't nothing ever come between us "Young love"

Young was the love so eager for the bliss
His desire seem to thirst for that very first kiss
His heart seem to pound like it was beating out his chest
His nose was wide open and he was hoping for the best
He would impress the girl with his looks and his charm
He said his only mission was protecting her from harm
She thought that he was cute and that he had a nice style
For everything he did he seem to always make her smile
They started hanging out thought they made no demands
The more time they spent the soon became best friends
These emotions got stronger so intense was there desire
The attraction so electric that the fuse would start a fire
For it was human nature it aint no way to fight
The more they outequaled the more the got exited
He went to make his move although he knew it was a risk Thought she granted his wish and they shared there first kiss

"Inspired by love" lyrics

You know you came into my life and rescued me through the storm you were there to shelter me when I was down you were always there for me just like an angel that God had sent to me.

When it was me against the world you believed in me it was hectic though you never spoke of leaving me and I never had a thought of you deceiving me just know that everything you do is really pleasing me.

In desperate need to have a friend you were by my side the loyalty that you displayed it really filled me with pride when I had to get away you came along for the ride it spake a flame and till this day it shit hasn't died.

You consoled me through the pain, you stood through the rain it's like you brought me back to life when I was living in vain.

When I was weak you gave me strength for many days to come in which encouraged me that I could really be someone the inspiration that you give to me is so profound the craziness within my life it's like you turned it around and if I ever get the chance in a give you the world but for now just take my heart and let our love unfold.

"Be my girlfriend" r&b and rap song

Chorus vocals
Lady would you be my girlfriend
I just want to spend sometime with you
Lady would you be my girlfriend
I just want to know you, can I get to know

Verse one RAP
I know you vulnerable you seem to be exposed to the pain
From broken hearts that left you stranded in the storming rain
Your title type to love deep the devotion demanded
But often times you didn't think that only took you for granted I have suffered through the same kind of pain and such I been betrayed so many times that I don't know who to trust
And then I met you on a lonely night, you were such a lovely sight
I knew with you that I would have to play my cards right Slowly as we conversed first you had your guards up But once you seen that I was real gradually you opened up You got emotional you even shed a tear
You told me thing about you past that it was hard for me to hear Cause pain it reflects me, you're hardship it touched me See me and you we got the same kind of pedigree
I know that we just met yet we sharing all these secrets
If ever had your heart then I would keep it "From the Heart" lyrics

Chose your eyes and reminisce let us drift upon a memory Thoughts of you and me and how we came to be See when I met you there was never doubt I had you to the point its all I thought about So deep in lust, in us, I trust, that we can make it happen
You was fascinated deeply by the way I was raping Game tight late at night be in the studio chillin I could see it in your eyes you was ready a willing Made you smile all the while I got the digits and it was an Sexy late night conversations on the phone Many night we entertain over bottles of champain Thinking back to then I understand how we became From lust it grew to love then we became as one We choose to move ahead when it was all said and done
We got lost with in our own world every thing is me and you And cant nobody make feel the way you do

"That's from the Heart"
"Lost Love" Poem

A love so great yet blown in the wind
They say all good things must come to an end

A love so rich yet lost its treasure
They tell me it's nothing that will last forever

A love strong yet grew so weak
We were once so close now we don't even speak

A love so sweet yet turned so sour
If it was never meant it's really out of your power

A love so devoted yet it still broke apart
The hurt still remains and it pains my heart

A love so alive yet it died so hard You was so shook that you was took off guard

A love so solid that lost ground in the storm
How could such a thing ever bring such harm

A love so grand though a lack there of It make you have to question was it ever really love
